He was impaled upon one of these ends, which entered his abdomen'about seven inches. Medical aid was summoned as soon as possible but it was thought doubtful if he could recover. St. Valentine's Day passed off yester day with the usual interchange of comic pletures and artistic cards, but the num ber of valentines this year has fallen off from that of former seasons, and there is Mr. Charles A Milliken, of Augusta, not such a general observance of the day as there once was. Some who had grudges to grind flooded their hapless victims with diabolical take-off, others bit off the pecultarities of their friends by valentines which would not wound the fee irgs, but ouly cause a laugh, while still others had ecource to the dalaty cards, which are bighly ornamental.

A currious houselesper of experience receptly made a careful practical test of the comparative baking twiller of a large number of the baking twiller of a large number of the baking twiller of the market, including those of live and high cost.

Sho found that twenty live cents worth of Horsford's light deponation raised more four and produced funch better results than the same memy haver to of the chemp adulterated powders, and also that it took fifty cents worthlof the ordinary highest highest powders to raise the same quantity of flour. From this she concluded, that it was more consominal to use the Horsford's than the low-prized adulterated nowders, and the product was much better. We commend a trial of this experiment by furfully friends.
